

ADVOCACY COUNCIL

WOMEN EMPLOYED'S ADVOCACY COUNCIL is an informed group of young professional women that organizes and advocates to advance WE's goals of expanding educational and employment opportunities for America's working women.

Advocacy Council members are from diverse professional backgrounds with a strong commitment to women's issues and social change with a range of skills and interests including marketing, event planning, and fundraising.

CALLING YOUNG PROFESSIONALS

JOIN US TO BUILD THE MOVEMENT FOR WOMEN'S ECONOMIC ADVANCEMENT

Members advance the movement for women's economic equality by:

MOBILIZING our networks through events, e-advocacy, and social media to bring the voices of young women to the movement for change.

ADVOCATING to improve public policies to ensure fairness and open opportunities.

INFORMING our personal and professional networks about the problem of low-paid work and what we can do together to solve it.

"FRIENDRAISING" and fundraising to strengthen Women Employed's programs.

MOBILIZING THE NEXT GENERATION OF WOMEN LEADERS

Today, despite the progress women have made, millions are struggling in low-paying jobs without opportunities to advance. Together, we can ensure that all working women can earn family-supporting wages and achieve their aspirations by:

- Increasing access to and success in EDUCATION AND TRAINING so that women can boost earnings and reach career goals.
- Making WORKPLACES FAIRER to improve women's economic stability and security.

The Advocacy Council meets
Tuesdays from 5:30 - 7:00 p.m.
